Art. 18

As an exception, for the creation of the competition file for the 2023-2024 academic year, online registration is carried out by uploading the documents by the candidates, with them undertaking responsibility for the authenticity and correspondence between the digital/scanned documents and the original ones.

Art. 19

After the end of the registration period, the options, their order, as well as other information in the registration form cannot be changed. In justified exceptional cases, within 24 hours from the end of the registrations, the candidate has the opportunity to complete his registration file with other documents requested for the admission competition.

Section 2. Checking and Grading the Competition Tests

Art. 20

The overall admission average for bachelor's academic studies cannot be lower than 5.00 (five) or an equivalent minimum number of points.

Art. 21

Admission to bachelor's academic studies in the Biology study program is based on the average of the baccalaureate exam within the limits of the approved seats for the 2023-2024 academic year.

Art. 22

(1) Admission to bachelor's academic studies for programs in the field of Health: MEDICINE and GENERAL NURSING is organized by taking a multiple-choice test with the physical presence of the candidates (onsite) and the correction is done electronically in front of the candidate who is notified of the grade obtained, under his/ her signature.

(2) For the bachelor's studies for Health programs: MEDICINE (in English) and MEDICINE (in French), the candidates are admitted by evaluating school performance and personal achievements, according to the evaluation grid (appendix 1)

(3) Admission to the bachelor's academic program in the field of Health BALNEO-PHYSIO-KINESITHERAPY AND RECOVERY is made based on the average grade obtained in the baccalaureate exam within the limit of approved seats for the 2023-2024 academic year.

Art. 23

(1) The candidates' ranking is done in descending order of average grades obtained in the admission exam and within the limits of the approved seats for each study program.

(2) The general average grades/ general scores obtained by candidates to admission are valid for establishing the ranking order only at the higher education institution which they applied to.

(3) For candidates with the same general backgrounds, the tiebreaker will be based on the following criteria, applied successively:

- a. in descending order of the average grade of the Baccalaureate exam;
- b. in descending order of the general average grade of high school years;

Art. 24

The subjects of the competition tests are determined on the basis of the topics displayed on the notice board/s and on the University's web page.

Art. 25

The admission test will be conducted on the basis of tests containing questions with answers of choice.

Art. 26

The starting time of the written tests is determined in relation to the time required for checking and submitting the subjects to the halls and will be 10 a.m., ROMANIA time (GMT+2).

Art. 27

The admission tests will be developed in 2 variants. The members of the Commission for drafting and multiplying the Admission subjects will be convened in a previously established room, at a previously established time. The members of the Commission for preparing and multiplying the Admission subjects will not be allowed to use cellphones in the room where the activity of designing the subjects is organized. Each drafting team within the Commission will set a computer password. Computers will not have internet access. The room will be video monitored. The Commission for preparing and multiplying the Admission subjects will ensure that all computers and all documents and materials used in the preparation of the subjects will be secured in a locked and sealed cabinet. The key to the cabinet will be taken over by the secretary of the commission.

Art. 28

On the morning of the exam day, the secretary of the commission, in the presence of the commission members, will unseal the cabinet and the variant will be extracted by the candidates' representatives, then it will be multiplied, at the UVVG risograph, in the presence of the Admissions Commission members. After multiplication, the notebooks are sealed in envelopes. The notebooks with questions will be handed over sealed to the room managers, in the presence of the candidates' representatives from each room.

Art. 29

The drawing of lots for the test variant from the 2 drawn up ones will be done in the presence of the candidates' representatives from all exam rooms. The candidates will be accompanied to the drawing procedure by the heads of the room.

(A) Reception and Distribution of Questionnaires. Details regarding the conduct of the written test

Art. 30

The head of the room, in the presence of the supervisors, proceeds to open the envelope with the exam tests.

Art. 31

The time set for opening test envelopes will be the same for all rooms where the same test is given.

Art. 32

From the moment the envelope with tests is opened, no candidate can enter the room and no candidate can leave the room until 60 minutes after the question papers have been distributed and only after the grid sheet has been handed in and signed for its delivery . Candidates who are not in the room when the subject envelopes are opened, lose the right to take the admission test.

Art. 33

After distribution of the question papers and grid sheets, directions are read out to the candidates.

Art. 34

The time allotted for the preparation of the written work is 3 hours for the bachelor's academic study program in Medicine and 2 hours for the bachelor's academic study program in General Nursing, counted from the moment when the papers with questions and the grid sheets were distributed to all candidates and the necessary instructions were given regarding the conduct of the written test.

Art. 35

The person in charge of the room will communicate the exact time at which the drafting of the paper begins and the time at which it will end. This will also be written on the board.

Art. 36

The pen provided is used to fill in the grid-type sheet and fill in the data in the corner with candidate identification elements. The same tools are used for drafting.

Art. 37

Candidates will take special care in filling the answers in the grid-type sheets by marking only the correct answers. Marking the correct answers is done by filling (completely hatching) the boxes.

Art. 38

During the conduct of the test, the head of the room and the other supervisors will not talk to the candidates, nor are they allowed to talk to each other.

Art. 39

If some candidates, for various reasons, want to transcribe their work without exceeding the time allotted for the test, they can do so, the sheet originally used is canceled on the spot, under the signature of the head of the room. The grid sheet that will be given out will be shown to the room as incomplete. The canceled grid-type sheets are handed in together with the written papers and must correspond in number with the grid-type sheets received from the admissions committee.

Art. 40

Writing the names of the candidates on the grid-type sheets outside the intended column, as well as other distinctive signs, will result in the cancellation of the respective paper.

Art. 41

Any proven attempt at fraud during the admission competition is sanctioned by the elimination of the respective candidates from the competition, mentioning in all documents "eliminated from the competition". It is also a fraud if the candidates, through different signs or tickets, try to communicate with each other about the questions in the questionnaires.

Art. 42

During the tests, only people delegated by the Rector of the University are allowed to enter the competition rooms.

Art. 43

The heads of the rooms, as well as supervisors, will not leave the rooms where they were assigned, during the course of the written papers, under any circumstances, except possibly in connection with the admissions committee. The exit of a supervisor from the room will be recorded in a report specifying the time of exit and return. If necessary, the exiting candidate will be accompanied by a supervisor appointed by the head of the room.

Art. 44

For the Medicine study program, the test will comprise:

- 60 grid questions with one or more correct answers
- All questions have 5 answer options
- There are no questions with all correct answers
- Filling in all 5 boxes of a question is prohibited, in this case the answer to that question will be canceled

- Each correct grid type question will be marked with 1 mark. For questions with only one correct answer, 1 point will be given if the ticked answer is the correct one or zero points if the correct answer was not identified. For questions with multiple correct answers, 0.20 points are awarded for each match
- 10 points are awarded ex officio
- The grade will be calculated using the following formula:
N= Points achieved

$$N = \frac{\text{Points achieved} \times 1.50 + 10 \text{ ex officio points}}{10}$$

- The duration of the written test will be 3 hours
- The grade is calculated with two decimal places, without rounding.
- To pass the test, the minimum grade is five (5).
- Valid completion of the grid by the candidate is done by crossing the correct answers. Filling the boxes is done on the entire surface according to the model below:

<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	correct	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	incorrect
-------------------------------------	---------	--------------------------	--------------------------	--------------------------	-----------

- Corrections or other distinguishing marks are not allowed.

Art. 45

For the General Nursing study program, the grid test will include:

- 30 grid questions with one or more correct answers. Each correct grid type question will be marked with 1 mark
- All questions have 5 answer options
- There are no questions with all correct answers
- Filling in all 5 boxes of a question is prohibited, in this case the answer to that question will be canceled
- Each correct grid type question will be marked with 1 mark. For questions with only one correct answer, 1 point will be given if the ticked answer is the correct one or zero points if the correct answer was not identified. For questions with multiple correct answers, 0.20 points are awarded for each match
- 10 points are awarded ex officio
- The grade will be calculated using the following formula:

$$N = \frac{\text{Points achieved} \times 3.00 + 10 \text{ points ex officio}}{10}$$

- The duration of the written test will be 2 hours.
- The grade is calculated with two decimal places, without rounding.
- To pass the test, the minimum grade is five (5).
- Valid completion of the grid by the candidate is done by crossing the correct answers. Filling the boxes is done on the entire surface according to the model below:

	correct		incorrect
--	---------	--	-----------

○ Corrections or other distinguishing marks are not allowed.

Art. 46

Within the Faculty of Medicine, candidates who did not obtain the grade required for admission to the first option (Dentistry), and obtained the minimum passing grade of 5, may opt, in descending order of averages, by written request submitted to the Faculty secretariat, for the programs of study Medicine, Balneo-physio-kinesitherapy and Recovery, Biology, General Nursing, in compliance with the approved tuition figure. Likewise, candidates who did not obtain the grade required for admission to the first option (Medicine), and obtained the minimum passing grade of 5, can opt, in descending order of averages, by written request submitted to the Faculty secretariat, for the study programs, Balneo-physio-kinesitherapy and Recovery, General Nursing or Biology, subject to the approved tuition figure

Art. 47

To the study programs MEDICINE (in English) and MEDICINE (in French), candidates are admitted by evaluating their academic performance and personal achievements, according to the evaluation grid (appendix 1)

Art. 48

(1) Admission to the BALNEO-PHYSIO-KINESITHERAPY AND RECOVERY and BIOLOGY study programs is based on the average obtained in the baccalaureate exam, within the limit of approved seats for the 2023-2024 academic year.

(2) For candidates with the same general averages, the tie will be made in descending order of the general average of the high school years.

(B) Management of written works, correction of works and necessary documents regarding their recording

Art. 49

As they complete their papers, candidates hand them to the head of the room. Candidates hand over the canceled type sheets and the sheets used as drafts to one of the supervisors.

Art. 50

Candidates who, at the end of the time allotted for the test, have not finished the work, hand it in in the stage in which they are, it being forbidden to exceed the time set for the preparation of the papers. At the end of the time allotted for the written paper, no less than 5 candidates can remain in the room. The papers will be handed in in order, with candidates submitting the completed grid-type sheet; it is not allowed to fill in the grid while waiting in line for the handover.

Art. 51

(1) The person in charge of the room, accompanied by members of the supervisory team, takes the papers to the secretary of the respective test committee, to whom he hands them over with a number and under signature. The canceled sample sheets, as well as the paper used for drafts, are handed over separately to the secretary of the trial committee.

(2) The number of written, canceled and blank sheets must coincide with the one received from the initial commission. Handing in the received papers will be done on the form received from the secretary of the admission committee. Canceled form sheets as well as the paper used for drafts are handed in separately. The secretary of the admission committee will ensure the further management of the written tests and documents generated by these operations.

(3)After handing in all the papers, the candidates will be recalled to the halls for their electronic correction.

(4)The electronic correction of the papers is done in the presence of the candidate and another candidate as a witness, under the signature of acknowledgment of the obtained grade

(5)The drafts prepared by the candidates during the drafting of the written papers, as well as any type sheets canceled during the test, are packed and kept separately, under lock and key, 30 days after the end of the exam, after which they are destroyed.

Art. 52

The grade for the paper is obtained by converting the points into marks by the software used in the correction

Art. 53

A list of the test results will be generated when the correction of the papers is finished.

Art. 54

In the grade slips and in the centralizing slip, the marks obtained by the candidates will be highlighted.

Art. 55

The passing of the final mark on the paper will be done by the member of the admission committee who assists in the electronic correction.

Art. 56

The results of the correction will be recorded in the grades catalogs signed by the admission committee

Art. 57

The tables and statements regarding the results of the admission test will be computerized.

Section 3. Contest results

Art. 58

The results of the admission competition are made public by posting at the faculty headquarters and on the University's website, according to the admission calendar.

Art. 59

(1)Any appeals will be submitted to the faculty's secretariat within 2 hours of the posting of the results.

(2)The results of appeals are communicated on the same day.

(3)Appeals based on ignorance of the admission methodology are not accepted.

(4)After the expiry of the deadline for resolution and response (by display) to appeals, the result of the admission competition is final and cannot be changed.

(5)Based on university autonomy, the "Vasile Goldiș" Western University of Arad is the only one in a position to decide on appeals, according to its own regulations and the legislation in force.

(7)The decision of the appeals resolution committee is final and will be communicated by posting on the website.

Art. 60

1)The display of the results obtained in the admission competition is done in stages, generating three types of lists:

- a. provisional lists – with the ranking of candidates, generated after admission;
- b. final lists – with the ranking of candidates, generated after the resolution of appeals that include the final and indisputable results;
