<https://legislatie.just.ro/Public/DetaliiDocumentAfis/305139>. The above-mentioned certificates must cover all four language skills (listening comprehension, reading, written message production, oral message production).

(8) In the case of studies carried out in French, the "Vasile Goldiș" Western University requires a minimum B1 level of knowledge of the French language, recognizing and validating the following exams: DELF, DALF, TCF, TEF, ECL, FEDE. Additional details regarding the recognized language certificates can be found in Order No. 6063/2020 of the Ministry of Education and Research, which can be consulted at https://www.edu.ro/sites/default/files/_fișiere/Legislatie/2020/OMEC_6063.pdf.

(9) The date of issue of all the above-mentioned certificates shall not exceed two years.

(10) The verification of English and French language competences for candidates who do not submit certificates or attestations of language competence of minimum level B1, according to the Common European Framework of Reference for Foreign Languages, shall be made by taking an online language test, which shall be organized in the form of a multiple choice test and an oral test, according to the admission calendar, by the discipline of Modern Languages within the Faculty of Social Sciences, Humanities, and Physical Education and Sport. The passing of the language test will be confirmed by a Certificate proving it, which is a mandatory and eliminatory requirement for registration in the admission competition.

(11) The confirmation of the place in the university study programs taught in Romanian implicitly entails the obligation of the foreign candidate (EU, third EU) admitted to participate in a linguistic test of medical terminology in Romanian, held within the Faculty of Social Sciences, Humanities, and Physical Education and Sport within the "Vasile Goldiș" Western University of Arad.

(12) The minimum passing grade for this exam is 7.

(13) In case of obtaining a grade lower than 7, the admitted candidate is obliged to participate in an intensive modular extracurricular course of 3 months, for a fee, which will end with a test whose lower limit is 7. If even after that test, the admitted candidates do not get at least 7. If even after that test, the admitted candidates have to take a language module under the same terms as the previous one.

(14) Persons who come from countries where the official language of the State is the language in which the courses are held and who prove, with school documents, that they have attended the courses in that language are exempt from this test.

(15) At the end of the third year of studies, the students enrolled in the university study programs in the field of Health, organized in a foreign language (English, French), take an eliminatory test of Romanian language, the continuation of the studies being conditioned by the passing of this test, given that, once the clinical cycle begins, the students must communicate with the patients in Romanian.

Art. 9

(1) A candidate may be admitted and enrolled as a student in no more than two study programs simultaneously, except for bachelor's degree programs in the field of Health with a duration of studies of 4, 5 or 6 years, regardless of the study cycle and the educational institutions that offer them.

(2) The university offers the possibility of examining candidates by an alternative method when they suffer from a temporary or permanent disability, medically certified, which makes it impossible to present the knowledge learned in the predetermined manner, so that the alternative method does not limit the achievement of the standards of the examination.

a) In accordance with the legislation in the field, the Admission Commission s will take measures to ensure equal opportunities for persons with disabilities enrolled in the admission competition, ensuring, where necessary, additional support adapted to persons with disabilities in order to access and take the admission tests;

b) Based on the medical documents proving (decision to classify as disabled and documents proving the type of disability), the candidates – persons with disabilities, will request in writing from the Admission Commission, additional support depending on the type of disability, which will ensure the participation and support in optimal conditions of the admission tests;

c) For candidates with motor disabilities, the Faculties will organize the tests either in a building, respectively a room, which ensures accessibility for people with motor disabilities, or online in the form of an oral exam;

d) For candidates with visual impairments, the Faculties will organize the oral tests, ensuring the optimal time needed adapted to the needs of the person with disabilities. If a written answer to the admission test is requested, the visually impaired candidate will dictate the answer to a person designated by the Commission by drawing lots to transcribe the candidate's answer in full;

e) For candidates who cannot write the written paper of the entrance exam except under limited conditions or cannot dictate the content of the assignment to another person due to multiple associated deficiencies or due to other reasons related to the manner of conducting the exam, the examination time will be increased in such a way as to ensure the completion of all the topics included in the exam test;

f) For candidates who are under medical treatment that is necessary to be administered within the time allotted for the admission tests, they will be provided with the necessary conditions to perform the respective treatment during the exam;

g) For candidates with visual impairments, the faculties will organize the oral tests, ensuring the optimal time adapted to the needs of the person with disabilities. If a written answer to the admission test is requested, the visually impaired candidate will dictate the answer to a person designated by the commission by drawing lots to transcribe the candidate's answer in full.

(3) Candidates for bachelor's degree studies who have obtained, during their high school studies, distinctions (I, II, III prizes, at international school Olympiads recognized by the Ministry of Education and Research and/or first prize at national Olympiads, financed by the Ministry of Education and Research), benefit from the right to register, without taking the admission competition, on places with a fee.

(4) Candidates who applied to be re-enlisted, being former students of the University and did not complete their studies from various reasons, may complete their studies in a higher year in the field of Health, after admission.

(5) Based on the credit transfer system, the students in this category may benefit of the recognition of the conducted and acknowledged studies and they can be enrolled against a fee in the year of studies corresponding to the passed and recognized exams and to the difference exams within the margins of the available places for the respective year of study.

CHAPTER III REQUIREMENTS AND PROCEDURE FOR REGISTERING FOR THE ADMISSION COMPETITION

Art. 10

(1) Within the "Vasile Goldiș" Western University of Arad, the registration, ranking, ranking generation stage is carried out through the ON-LINE ADMISSION module, integrated into the UMS system.

(2) The initiation of the admission process by the candidates implies accessing the online Admission mode, an integral part of the UMS version implemented within the "Vasile Goldiș" Western University of Arad. The admission commission s organized at the level of each structure involved in the admission process will provide continuous advice and technical support to candidates who request it. The technical equipment of the admission commission s is provided by the IT Office.

(3) The Online Admission Module can be accessed from any desktop/laptop/tablet/mobile phone computer that has access to the Internet and to the updated browsing browser (Google Chrome recommended) at the web address <https://admitereonline.uvvg.ro/>

(4) The University offers the possibility for candidates to register online and from the Permanent Information and Admission Center as well as from the headquarters of the University extensions.

(5) It is emphasized that, if the number of admitted candidates (20 for bachelor's degree studies, 20 for the master's program for which they opt) for the composition of a study formation is not enough, it cannot function, and the candidates will be able to opt for another study program in the same field, at the same faculty, according to the options declared in the registration form. The application form also includes the candidate's declaration regarding the candidate's consent to the collection and processing of personal data, the motivation for their processing as well as the rights of candidates in the case of the processing of these data.

(6) The online registration procedure is described in the Procedure regarding the process of organizing and conducting the admission competition for bachelor's and master's degree studies in the online system and exemplified in the Candidate's Guide for online registration and includes the following steps:

I. Creating an access account in the application by entering personal authentication elements (name, surname and valid email address and transcription of the Captcha code, alphanumeric variant to avoid the automatic creation of accounts for malicious purposes. On the email address entered, the candidate will receive a link from the application that validates access to the account. On this e-mail address, the candidate will receive further information on the status of the file.

Only users who have created an account on the online admission platform will be able to access and submit files online.

II. After activating the account, access the online admission platform for submitting the competition files, filling in the credentials declared at the time of creating the account. (declared email address and password)

III. Selection of the session. The license session which the candidate wishes to enroll for is chosen from the list and he/ she undertakes the sworn statements regarding the data filled in the platform. The affidavits by which the candidate undertakes the correctness, completeness and compliance of the information declared online on the platform, plus the conditions imposed by the Admission Methodology, are viewed and checked. It is a mandatory step, without which the registration cannot continue. These sworn statements will be associated with the candidate account. After checking and saving the sworn statements, the system will open the window for selecting the faculties and study programs that enter the competition in the selected session.

IV. Selection of faculty and specialization. The faculty, the study program and the type of place which he/she wishes to apply for are selected. A faculty may have one or more programs of study, establishing the hierarchy of options for different programs of study. If the candidate intends to apply to more than one faculty, he/she will have to submit a separate file for each faculty.

V. Access the online registration form and fill in the following data sets:

a) Personal data such as name, surname, father/mother's surname, personal number, telephone number, email.

b) Personal data regarding the permanent home address, place of birth, date of birth, information about the identity document. The application will not allow you to move on to the next step if the identity document is not within the validity period.

c) Personal data regarding marital status and information about special situations (orphan of one parent, of both parents, from social establishments, single-parent family, person with disabilities).

d) Entering information about the high school studies completed and, as the case may be, other university studies completed with or without a bachelor's degree. If the candidate has already started/ completed a bachelor's degree program, he/ she must submit a certificate showing the period of schooling, the form of financing, as well as the number of semesters in which he/ she benefited from the scholarship.

e) Choice of options. The candidate will have to select the study program(s) to which he/she wishes to enroll, the competition test (if applicable) and the type of place for which he/she is applying (budget/fee), establishing the hierarchy of options for the different study programs.

f) Uploading specific documents. At this step, the documents in electronic format (.pdf; .jpeg) with a maximum size of 3 Mb are uploaded to the platform.

g) Payment of the admission fee. The payment is made online or the document proving the payment of the fee is uploaded if the candidate has already chosen to pay by another payment method.

h) Filling in the sworn statements by the candidate by checking individually and sending the file for validation by the admission commission .

i). If the candidate intends to apply to more than one faculty, he/she will have to submit a separate file for each faculty.

VI. The status of the file at this moment is pending, both financially and in terms of the documents attached to it. At this stage:

- the candidate will be able to view, save and list the online registration form, directly from his/her account, created on the online registration platform for admission;

- The candidate will receive on the email address declared when creating the account, automatic confirmation from the system regarding the taking over of the file, as well as the online registration form, generated according to the format used at the application level.

- from the moment the candidate has sent the electronic file for validation, the University, through the admission commissions, has access to the declared data in order to carry out the necessary verifications for registration. The University will have access to the Integrated Information System of Education in Romania for the validation of the candidate's statements.

VII. Validation of the file. The candidate will be notified both by the declared email and by the account in the application regarding the status of the file:

- if the file requires changes (e.g., a document is not legible), the candidate will receive a message stating the reason for invalidation;

- If everything is correct and the file has been validated both financially and from the point of view of the uploaded documents, the candidate will be able to view, save and list the competition card, directly from the account created on the online admission platform or from the email received at the declared address.

(7) The persons who have gone through the registration procedure acquire the status of candidates for admission. The quality of admission, respectively the subsequent quality of student, is acquired on the basis of the selection, tiebreaker, respectively enrollment procedures specified in this Regulation, within the limit of the number of places available for each specialization and form of education.

(8) The completion of the Registration Form for the admission competition is equivalent to the recognition, by the candidates, of the fact that they are aware of the provisions of this Regulation and undertake to comply with them. Any subsequent appeal can only be related to these provisions or to the general criteria specific to the legal regulations. Appeals for oral, sports or artistic aptitude tests are not allowed.

Art. 11

The competition file for the candidate's admission will contain the following documents (submitted in pdf or jpeg format and listed in the application):

(3) Third EU (non-EU) candidates are admitted to bachelor's degree studies by evaluating the documents attesting their academic performance and personal achievements, according to the evaluation grid (Annex 2)

Art. 18

(1) The candidates' ranking shall be made in descending order of the averages obtained at the admission exam and within the limit of the places approved for each study program.

(2) The general averages/general scores obtained by the candidates for admission are valid for establishing the order of classification only at the higher education institution to which they have applied.

(3) For candidates with the same general averages, with the same general averages, the tiebreaker shall be made on the basis of the following criteria, successively applied:

- a. In descending order of the average of the Baccalaureate /bachelor's exam;
- b. In descending order of the average obtained in Biology
- c. In descending order of the average obtained in Chemistry
- d. In descending order of the average obtained Physics

Art. 19

The subjects of the competition tests are established on the basis of the topics published on the faculty bulletin board(s) and on the University's website.

Art. 20

The admission competition will be held on the basis of tests containing questions with answers of one's choice.

Art. 21

The starting time of the written tests will be 10 a.m., ROMANIA time (GMT+2).

Art. 22

The admission tests will be developed in 2 variants. The members of the Commission for the preparation and multiplication of the Admission topics will be summoned to a pre-established room, at a pre-established time. The members of the Commission for the preparation and multiplication of the Admission topics will not be allowed with cell phones in the room where the activity of designing the subjects is organized. Each drafting team within the Commission will proceed to set a password on the computer. Computers will not have internet access. The room will be under video surveillance. The Commission for the preparation and multiplication of the Admission topics will ensure that all computers and all documents and materials used in the elaboration of the topics will be secured in a locked and sealed locker. The key to the locker will be taken over by the secretary of the commission.

Art. 23

On the morning of the exam day, the secretary of the commission, in the presence of the members of the commission, will unseal the cabinet and the version will be extracted by the candidates' representatives, then it will be multiplied, at the UVVG printing house, in the presence of the members of the Admission Commission. After multiplication, the notebooks are sealed in envelopes. The question books will be handed over sealed to the room managers, in the presence of the candidates' representatives from each room.

Art. 24

The drawing of the test variant from the 2 developed will be made in the presence of the candidates' representatives from all the exam rooms. The candidates will be accompanied to the drawing procedure by the heads of the room.

(A) Receipt and distribution of questionnaires with questions. Clarifications regarding the conduct of the written test

Art. 25

The person in charge of the room, in the presence of the supervisors, proceeds to open the envelope with the exam tests.

Art.26

The time decided for opening the envelopes with tests will be the same for all rooms where the same test is given.

Art. 27

From the moment the envelope with tests is opened, no candidate can enter the room, and no candidate can leave the room until 60 minutes after the distribution of the questionnaires with questions and only after the grid sheet is handed over and signed for its delivery. Candidates who are not in the room at the time of opening the envelopes with topics lose the right to take the admission competition .

Art. 28

After the distribution of the questionnaires with questions and the grid-type sheets, the indications for candidates are read.

Art. 29

The time allocated for the elaboration of the written paper is 3 hours for the bachelor's degree programs of Medicine, Medicine (in English), Medicine (in French), counted from the moment when the questionnaires with questions and grid-sheets were distributed to all candidates and the necessary indications were given regarding the conduct of the written test.

Art. 30

The person in charge of the room will communicate the exact time at which the drafting of the paper begins and the time at which it will end. This will also be written on the board.

Art. 31

To fill in the grid sheet and fill in the data in the corner with the candidate's identification elements, the pen received is used. The same tools are used in the elaboration of drafts.

Art. 32

Candidates will take special care to fill in the answers in the grid-type sheets by marking only the correct answers. Marking the correct answers is done by filling (completely hatching) the boxes.

Art. 33

During the test, the person in charge of the room and the other supervisors will not discuss with the candidates and are not allowed to discuss with each other.

Art. 34

If some candidates, for various reasons, wish to transcribe their paper without exceeding the time allocated for the test, they can do so, the initial sheet being cancelled on the spot, under the signature of the person in charge of the room. The grid-type sheet that will be given will be shown to the hall that it is blank. The cancelled grid-type sheets are handed in together with the written papers and must correspond in number to the grid-type sheets received from the admission commission .

Art. 35

The inscription of the candidates' names on the grid-type sheets outside the intended section, as well as other distinctive signs, entail the cancellation of the respective paper.

Art. 36

Any proven attempt of fraud during the admission competition is sanctioned with the elimination of the respective candidates from the competition, mentioning in all documents "eliminated from the competition". The case in which candidates, through different signs or notes, tries to communicate with each other regarding the questions in the questionnaires also constitutes fraud.

Art. 37

During the tests, only persons delegated by the Rector of the University are allowed to enter the competition rooms.

Art. 38

The persons in charge of the rooms, as well as the supervisors, will not leave the rooms where they have been assigned during the written tests in any way, except possibly the connection with the admission commission. The exit of a supervisor from the room will be recorded in a report specifying the time of exit and return. In case of need, the candidate who leaves will be accompanied by a supervisor appointed by the person in charge with the room.

Art.39

For the study programs of Medicine, Medicine (in English), Medicine (in French) the test will include:

- 60 multiple choice questions with one or more correct answers, of which 40 questions from Biology and 20 questions from Chemistry, in accordance with the published topics
- All questions have 5 answer options
- There are no questions with all the answers correct
- It is forbidden to fill in all 5 boxes of a question, in which case the answer to that question will be canceled
- Each correct grid question will be scored with 1 point.
- For questions with only one correct answer, 1 point will be awarded if the answer checked is the correct one or zero points if the correct answer has not been identified.
- For questions with more than one correct answer, 0.20 points are awarded for each match
- 10 points are awarded ex officio
- The calculation of the grade will be done using the following formula:
N= Points earned

$$N = \frac{\text{Points scored} \times 1.50 + 10 \text{ points ex officio}}{10}$$

- The written test time will be 3 hours
- The grade is calculated to two decimal places, without rounding.

- To pass the test, the minimum grade is five (5).
- The candidate's valid completion of the grid is done by cross-hatching the correct answers. The filling of the boxes is done on the entire surface according to the model below:

	correct				incorrect
--	---------	--	--	--	-----------

- Corrections or other distinctive signs are not allowed.

Art. 40

Within the Faculty of Medicine, candidates who have not obtained the necessary grade for admission to the first option (Dentistry), and have obtained the minimum passing grade of 5, may opt, in descending order of averages, by written request submitted to the Faculty secretariat, for the study programs Medicine, Balneo-Physio-kinesitherapy and Recovery, Biology, General Nursing, in compliance with the approved enrollment figure. Also, candidates who have not obtained the necessary grade for admission to the first option (Medicine), and have obtained the minimum passing grade of 5, may opt, in descending order of averages, by written request submitted to the Faculty secretariat for the study programs, Balneo-Physio-kinesitherapy and Recovery, General Nursing or Biology, in compliance with the approved enrollment figure

Art. 41

Foreign (third EU) candidates are admitted through the evaluation of documents attesting to school performance and personal achievements, according to the evaluation grid (Annex 2)

(B) Management of written works, correction of works and the necessary documents regarding their recording

Art. 42

As they conclude their work, the candidates hand it over to the person in charge with the room. Candidates shall hand over to one of the supervisors the cancelled sheets and the sheets used as drafts.

Art. 43

Candidates who have not finished the paper at the end of the time allotted for the test, hand it in at the stage they are in, and it is forbidden to exceed the time set for the preparation of the papers. At the end of the time allotted for the written paper, no less than 5 candidates can remain in the room. The delivery of the papers will be done in order, the candidates presenting the completed grid-type sheet; It is not allowed to fill in the grid during the time when waiting in line for delivery.

Art. 44

(1) The person in charge of the room, accompanied by members of the supervisory team, shall take the papers to the secretary of the respective test commission, to whom he shall hand them over with a number and under signature. The cancelled standard sheets, as well as the paper used for drafts shall be handed over separately to the secretary of the test commission.

(2) The number of written sheets, cancelled and left vacant, must coincide with the one received from the commission initially. The delivery of the sheets received will be made on the form received from the secretary of the admission commission. The cancelled sheets as well as the paper used for drafts are handed over separately. The secretary of the admission commission will ensure further management of the written papers and documents generated on these operations.

(3) After submitting all the papers, the candidates will be called back to the rooms for their electronic correction.

(4) The electronic correction of the papers shall be made in the presence of the candidate and of another candidate as a witness, under the signature of acknowledgment of the grade obtained
(5) The drafts drawn up by the candidates on the occasion of the elaboration of the written papers, as well as any standard sheets cancelled during the test, shall be packed and kept separately, under lock and key, for 30 days from the end of the exam, after which they shall be destroyed.

Art. 45

The grade for the paper is obtained by converting the points into grades by the software used for correction

Art.46

At the end of the correction of the papers, a list of the test results will be generated.

Art. 47

In the grade slips and in the centralizing slip, the grades obtained by the candidates will be highlighted.

Art. 48

The final grade on the paper will be passed by the member of the admission commission who assists in the electronic correction.

Art. 49

The results of the correction will be recorded in catalogs of grades signed by the admission commission

Art. 50

The tables and situations regarding the results of the admission competition will be computerized.

Section 3. Competition results

Art. 51

The results of the admission competition are made public by posting at the faculty headquarters and on the University's website, according to the admission planning

Art. 52

(1) Any appeals shall be submitted to the faculty secretariat within 2 hours from the posting of the results.

(2) The results of the appeals shall be communicated on the same day.
